For Sale: 2017 Lotus Evora Sport 410 – Pure, Lightweight Analog Perfection finished in striking Ardent Red, almost pristine Condition, Only 23,000 km, If you are looking for an ordinary sports car, buy a Porsche. If you want an uncompromising, track-bred supercar slayer that connects your soul directly to the tarmac, this Lotus Evora Sport 410 is the answer. Limited to an incredibly exclusive production run worldwide, the Sport 410 is a rare masterclass in Lotus founder Colin Chapman’s philosophy: "Simplify, then add lightness."Why This Specific Evora Sport 410 Stands.
Head-Turning Presence, Draped in stunning, glossy Red paintwork that perfectly contrasts against the raw, factory carbon fiber roof, front splitter, rear diffuser, and single-piece tailgate, maintained and driven just 23,000 km. The exterior paint shines like new, and the minimalist, alcantara-clad cabin shows virtually zero wear, Unmatched Performance, Powering this lightweight monster is a 410-horsepower, 3.5-liter supercharged V6 that catapults you from 0–100 km/h in just 4.1 seconds, screaming all the way to a top speed of 305 km/h.The Ultimate Driver's Car: Stripped of 70 kg over the standard Evora 400, this car features a recalibrated, lower suspension and hydraulic steering that offers the most communicative road feedback money can buy, this is not just a weekend toy, it is a collector-quality, modern classic that will turn heads at any cars & coffee and dominate any track day. It represents the absolute pinnacle of analog Lotus engineering before the brand transitioned to heavy electric vehicles.
